INVITATION TO REGISTER

Adelaide, South Australia will hit the spotlight in May 1998 with the inaugural High Beam Festival. High Beam is ten continuous days of performances, exhibitions and seminars which will highlight the creative talents of people with a disability.

This innovative and exciting festival will provide a rare opportunity for individual artists and companies from all over Australia to profile their talents across the full range of artistic expression.

If you are an artist or arts company with experience of disability or address issues of disability you are invited to register your interest in presenting an arts event within the High Beam program.

SPARC Disability Foundation, through project managers Arts in Action, will present a number of events which will frame the Festival and provide promotional opportunities for those involved in it.

HIGH BEAM FESTIVAL INCLUDES:

- A spectacular opening night of celebration.
- A lively Cabaret/Party featuring some of Australia's top entertainers.
- Two days of stimulating seminars with topics covering arts, disability and healthy communities.
- A week-long program of disability inclusive events at The Governor Hindmarsh Hotel.
- A promotional campaign that will attract people from around Australia.
- Multi-media promotional opportunities including free entry in the official festival program.

When you register you will be responsible for your own venue booking and additional publicity. Your event dates should correspond with the timespan of the festival.

Please complete and return the attached initial expression of interest form by Friday 31st October 1997.
