Peter Cave

Peter Caves paintings display a distinctive technique and style. His application of paint is highly methodical and his works are imbued with a unique energy and character. Often drawing on traditional subjects such as land or seascapes, Caves approach results in paintings which offer a slightly quirky take on familiar scenes. Peter Caves portraits of Kim Jong-il and Kim Il-sung will be shown in our upcoming exhibition Error and Judgement (see below for details).

Cave's artwork will be represented at Melbourne Art Fair 2012.

Error and Judgement

21 July - 4 September 2012

Arts Project Australia

Exhibition Opening: Saturday 21 July from 3-5pm

Error and Judgement takes as its departure point the notion of making an error of judgement and its implication of making an erroneous decision. Instead, this project focuses on the possibilities of mistakes and their capacity to lead to unplanned and unintended positive outcomes...Error and Judgement presents a selection of works which embrace such possibilities for chance, both formally and conceptually, and inversely, how such decisions might be reflected in consideration of some of recent history's more divisive
