Switch On Switch Off

Sally Bucknell is looking for artists with disabilities to submit work which addresses their experiences of: society and peers; how your art has been influenced by your disability; how peoples' art has changed if you have acquired a disability; and how to erode barriers.

Sally is looking for artists working in digital imaging or photography. Sally would like to present some work on transparencies or 35mm slides that will be displayed on medical light boxes.

The exhibition venue is the University Gallery, University of Tasmania, Launceston. For more
