Short Film featuring Terry Williams

Arts Project artist Terry Williams is featured in a short film produced by Tomas and Jeffrey Paul "Terry" for the Focus on Ability - A Short Film Competition to raise awareness of people who have a disability. The film was shot at Arts Project Australia's studio, with Jeffrey and Tomas perfectly capturing the beautiful creative process of Terry.

Bronwyn Hack

Bronwyn Hacks work centres around scenes of ardent attraction featuring fictionalised characters drawn from popular culture or her own imagination, who swoon and embrace under her hand. The passion of the figures is reflected in her intense and fervent approach to drawing, resulting in a tension between the figures which, in turn, reminds us of the poignant and sometimes painful tensions of romance.
