

2018

NT ARTS ACCESS AWARDS NOMINATIONS NOW OPEN!

The NT Arts Access Awards recognise the contributions of individuals, groups and organisations in the NT who have been working to improve accessibility in the creative arts for people with disability, across all genres of creative endeavor. The awards are a joint project of Arts Access Darwin and Incite Arts (Alice Springs) running since 2009. The awards aim to acknowledge NT based artists with disability who have made an outstanding contribution through their creative practice

ABOUT THE 2018 NT ARTS ACCESS AWARDS

NT Arts Access Awards will be held as part of the 2018 Meeting Place program.

Meeting Place is the signature event of Arts Access Australia, the national peak body for arts and disability in Australia. Meeting Place is a national forum created in 2012 to build stronger linkages and collaboration between stakeholders. Meeting Place is held annually and brings artists with disability together with industry leaders in an accessible and supported space, to present, perform, discuss and debate the latest in arts and disability. The first international Meeting Place was held in Germany in 2017, and the aim is to hold an international forum every four years. Arts Access Australia is excited that this year's Meeting Place will be held in Alice Springs. This will be the first time in the events history that Meeting Place will be held in regional Australia. The forum will be co-hosted by Incite Arts. <https://www.meetingplaceforum.org/>
