ARTS PROJECT AUSTRALIA

AAA

is pleased to invite you to the opening of

Walking the Line

Often the starting point for artists, the use of line is perhaps one of the simplest and most immediate means of communicating an idea. Walking the Line seeks to show the beauty, engagement and richness of artistic responses to line and mark making through drawing, works on paper and printmaking. A continuum of the journey of line and mark making from the fragile and delicate, to the bold, structural and multi-layered will be shown. This exhibition aims to demonstrate the confidence in the use of line and mark making by artists of Arts Project Australia as well as presenting work that is infused with freshness, fervour and exploration of mediums.
