ADULT WORKSHOP

Weekend workshop for adults

(Deaf, hearing impaired and hearing, 18 years and over)

Put the rhythm into your visual expression

The 'Body Beat' workshop leaders, Natasha Moszenin and Caroline Conlon (accompanied by a sign language interpreter) will initiate you into an energising and challenging new way of music-making.

In Natasha's sessions the concept is 'your body is your drum'. This will be a journey through Africa, Spain, South America, Asia and the Pacific Islands where body percussion has been an important tradition in villages for centuries.

Caroline's sessions will see variations on the concept of 'sign singing', including the making of original gestural songs without backing music.

These two approaches will converge in a dynamic visual and aural finale.
