OPENING

Saturday 28 July, 3–5pm

The Art of Living marks Arts Project Australia's inaugural 'Artist as Curator' program. Curated by prominent Australian artist Rhys Lee, the show brings together works by Australian and international artists, alongside Arts Project studio artists, to consider how one can live honestly and bravely through the work they produce. Exploring themes of everyday life, these artists show us that they live to make art and make art to live.

The Art of Living will be accompanied by a catalogue essay by Hannah Mathews, Senior Curator at Monash University Museum of Art.
