

A SMALL DAY OUT

Synopsis

A Small Day Out is original storytelling devised and performed by the Blue Roo Theatre Company's inclusive ensemble. They will have you laughing as they weave a tale of two strangers whose boring day in the park turns into a thrilling adventure filled with connection, mayhem and fame.

Welcome

FROM DEBORAH WALKER,
PRESIDENT, BLUE ROO THEATRE

Blue Roo performers use their curiosity and imagination to develop performance and social skills, teamwork, and bringing their different abilities together they help create highly effective and heart-warming public performances. They bring the magic of public performance to Queensland theatres, public spaces and regional communities.

Congratulations!!

Oriel Halpin and James Loakes, our mentored emerging inclusive Directors for a Small Day Out. Great Job!

With Many Thanks

To our partners, sponsors and donors
To our mentors for this production
Laraine Griffiths, Jade Brider, Brett Pearce and Dale Johnson
To our front-of-house and backstage volunteers who make each and every production possible.

Blue Roo Theatre Company pays respects to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander ancestors of this land and acknowledges the traditional owners of the land where we work and pay our respects to Elders past and present. We recognise their connection to Country and role in caring for and maintaining Country over thousands of years.
