Catalogue Rawcus

→ Arts House,
Meat Market
Tue 10 – Sat 14 March

Presented by Arts House and Rawcus

Through acts of shameless abandon, Rawcus shares fantasies and vulnerabilities in a theatrical cabinet of curiosities. From karaoke to bedroom dancing and imagined celebrity, 12 performers grace eight stages, side-by-side in a tableau that becomes an exhibition of human expression.

With the audience empowered to watch all 'channels' at once, Catalogue is a triumph of composition, a portrait of a world where viewpoints and aesthetics are as diverse and complex as the bodies and personalities that make them. An imperfect catalogue of humanity, the work is an orchestration of private, public and performed selves.

Rawcus (Small Odysseys, Another Lament, Hunger) is an award-winning ensemble of artists with and without disabilities, who devise kaleidoscopic theatrical spectacles that quicken the heart and spark the mind.
