

Theatre of the Deaf presents

The Sign of the Phantom

A darkly funny fantasy challenging the senses
with music you can see, feel and hear

A new musical by Melissa Reeves

The Performance
Space
7 September
1 October 1995

Theatre of the Deaf presents

The Sign of the Phantom

A darkly funny fantasy challenging the senses
with music you can see, feel and hear

A new musical by Melissa Reeves

The Performance Space

199 Cleveland St, Redfern

7 September - 1 October 1995

Tuesday to Saturday at 8pm, Sunday at 5pm

Matinees - Tuesday & Thursday at 11am

BOOKINGS

319 5091 (voice)

318 2835 (tty)

George Phantom is at a loose end, going anywhere the wind blows him. One strange afternoon the wind blows him to the Hills of Calm Mental Institute where the seemingly jovial Dr Noah employs him as a cleaner. As George gets to know the inmates Australia's first ever Deaf musical will challenge your senses with music you can see, feel and hear.

he discovers that the rigid line painted by society between sanity and madness is a delusion and he is drawn into a bizarre guerilla war against the hospital establishment aided by the surreal armies of the unconscious.

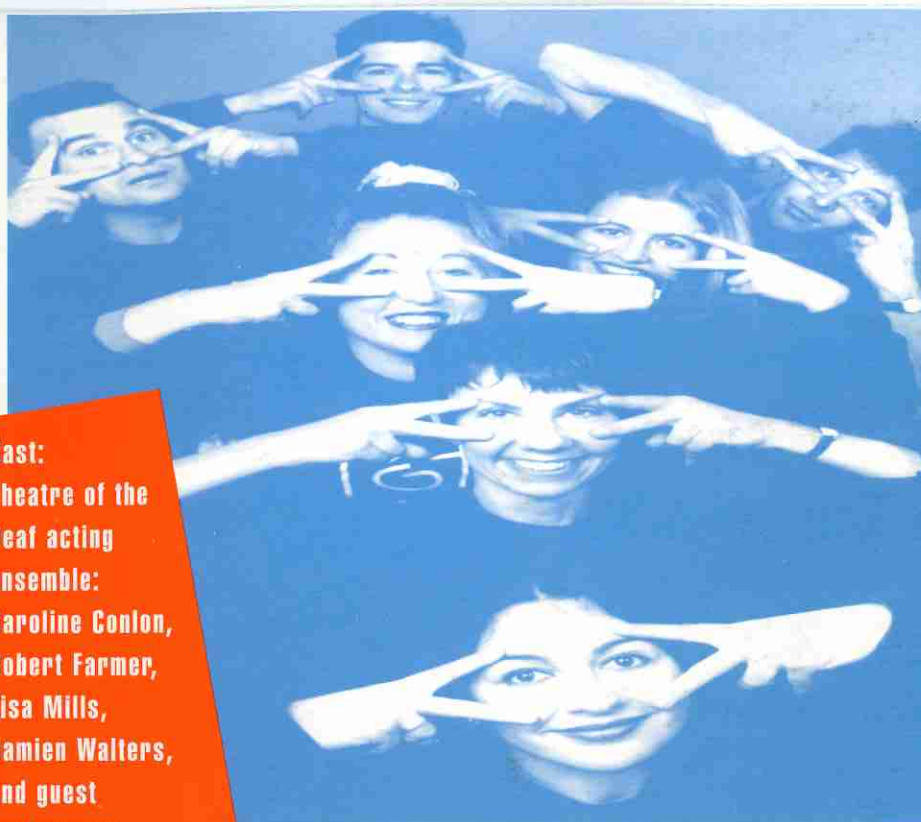

7th
September to 1st
October
1995

Director: Mike Canfield • Original Music and Musical Director: Matthew Fargher • Designer: Andrew Raymond • Choreographer: William Forsythe • Lighting Designer: Bruce McKendry

The Performance Space
199 Cleveland St Redfern

Cast:
Theatre of the Deaf acting ensemble:
Caroline Conlon, Robert Farmer, Lisa Mills, Damien Walters, and guest performers, Dale Caldwell and Janet Andrews.

All singing, all signing, all dancing, The Sign of the Phantom is a darkly funny fantasy, jumping between the colourless world of the institution and the frightening but exhilarating world of the imaginary, where chairs listen to your thoughts and the walls have ears.

Theatre of the Deaf's acting ensemble will be joined by guest performers from the Voices from the Vacant Lot Choir, giving audiences a unique musical experience.

Australia's Theatre of the Deaf is a contemporary performance company founded in 1979. The Company has developed a distinctive visual style making its productions accessible to all. Theatre of the Deaf is the only professional Deaf theatre company in Australia.

THE PERFORMANCE SPACE

Tuesday to Saturday at 8pm,
Sunday at 5pm

Matinees

Tuesday & Thursday at 11am

Tickets

$20 full / $15 members*

$10 concession

Tuesday nights and matinees all tickets $10

BOOKINGS

319 5091(voice)

318 2835(tty)

*Members of TOD, The Performance Space and MEAA

Theatre of the Deaf
presents

The Sign of the Phantom

A darkly funny fantasy challenging the senses with music you can see, feel and hear

A new musical by Melissa Reeves

The Performance Space
7 September
1 October 1995