Inspiring Creativity

Jordan is one of the younger artists in the Arts Project Studio, a definite 'hipster' whose skills as a DJ were in full force at the Christmas Party. His favourite medium is pastels and he has created some stunning animal figures. Naturally when we arranged a professional pastel artist to come in and workshop techniques with our artists Jordan was one of the first to put his hand up.

Workshops like these build artists' knowledge and skills within a contemporary art context and extend their community beyond the Arts Project Studio.

Every year we arrange workshops and field trips to galleries and other inspirational venues which result in more informed techniques and exciting new work. It's a vital part of artistic development.

Please contribute to the creative journey of our artists by making a tax deductible gift before the end of the financial year.
