Too Many Legs Bryan Tingey

Freight DADAA WA

Adelaide artist Bryan Tingey presents a new body of work that exhibits the varied influences of philosophy, history and psychology informing his work and his experimentations with the art forms of graffiti, iconography and hieroglyphics

Freight is the latest shipment of outsider art on the move from WA. The exhibition showcases the works of three Western Australian artists working in textiles, photography and digital media.

To be officially launched by Susan Maley, Artistic Director Evolve High Beam 2004
