• Group Show at Chapter House Lane

A collaborative Group Show, including works by Arts Project Australia artists who have worked with other contemporary Melbourne artists is to be shown early November at Chapter House Lane, Melbourne.

Julian Martin Not titled 2015 pastel on paper 38 x 28cm

While set themes or specific frameworks often bind group shows, this exhibition celebrates spontaneity and choice, and will see the artists explore the nature of collaboration as a theme in itself.

The project centres on creative interplay as the artists have collaborated over time – via painting en plein air, email correspondence or trading reference materials in the post – to explore possibilities borne out of artistic exchange. Though varied in age and experience, artists have been paired on the grounds of mutual sensibilities – however subtle – like material choices, composition or the willingness to experiment.

The experience will also be documented in a small publication with a written work by Anne Stonehouse. Arts Project Australia has worked in collaboration with Chapter House Lane on this project.

This exhibition explores the use of digital technologies and the photographic image in the creation of paintings, drawings and ceramic objects. It posits that artists who use technology as the basis of their art making are extending the experience of the "digital eye" so as to reclaim an analogue familiarity. It will present works by artists who create directly from digitally-mediated and photographic images, arguing that the physical act of painting, drawing and object making, and the presence of the artist's hand brings us closer to the physical world which we inhabit.

FEATURING WORKS BY Alvaro Alvarez, Justin Andrews, Peter Ben, Erica Berechree,

Alan Constable, Simon Finn, Chris O'Brien and Darren Wardle.
