

Thank you

Tutti Arts would like to thank members of the Song Club for their support of Day of the Song, and CREATIVE PARTNERSHIPS AUSTRALIA for their generous contribution to the success of the Festival.

Very special thanks to;

- Day Song Festival production team for all your hard work on this project
- The Infusion team members, a wonderful group of young people from refugee and other disadvantaged communities who have been learning about event management through a partnership between Tutti and Arunga Project Solutions, supported by Adelaide City Council
- All community choir members, choral staff and volunteers for your unwavering dedication, passion and unwavering dedication to making great music. Without your passion and commitment these events would not be possible.
- Language Performer Monday McGill; Language Performance Director Barry Priori; Auslan Interpreter Amber Venner; Jayne Hewetson and WestCare Centre
- All Tutti staff for their commitment and talent

All proceeds from today's concert will go towards supporting the Tutti Choir. Tutti's mission is to make great art which effects social change and the Tutti Choir is where it all begins. Your support of this grass roots choral training which has changed the lives of so many people with disability for the better and set many on the path to a professional career is deeply appreciated. For more information, please look at our website www.tutti.org.au

Tutti gratefully acknowledges the support of the South Australian Government through Disability SA, and Arts South Australia through Community Projects Development, and the Richard Llewellyn Arts and Disability Program; and Project Partners Adelaide City Council; Adelaide West End Association; Music SA; and Arunga Project Solutions.

Every donation to Tutti helps us provide support to our talented artists and ensures the continuity of our services. If you would like to make a donation to Tutti, please see the Front of House staff, follow the link on our website or phone Linda Jacobsson on 8422 6511.
