

THEATRE OF THE DEAF

Plans for 1990

In 1990, Theatre of the Deaf will re-stage JUMPING OFF THE SHELF, with the addition of some new stories, for both schools and as part of a storytelling in the libraries project. BEHIND THE WINDOW will tour to Tasmania and NSW country areas.

The company will do a production of a new show, HERE, especially commissioned from Graham Pitts. This production will be taken to the Next Wave Festival in Melbourne in May, and in September will be part of Carnivale in Sydney.

Theatre of the Deaf will also begin its Deaf Drama Outreach Programme, a new programme focussed especially on the Deaf Community, to bring the theatre experience to Deaf adults and children who may otherwise not have access to workshops and performances. This will be in addition to the usual programme of workshops in hearing schools, community centres and theatres.

Future Plans

Other future plans include a tour of the company's original production of WOLFMoon; new plays for both High School and Primary School audiences; tours overseas to Japan, England and America for Theatre/Cultural Festivals and Deaf Theatre/Cultural Celebrations; teachers brought from overseas for Skills Development workshops.
