

ATOD Australian Theatre of The Deaf

The Sign is Right

The Sign is Right

The Game show with a difference !

Introduce your students to a whole new language.....

a silent language

And when its conveyed by the Australian Theatre of the Deaf

.... it's easily understood !

The host and presenters of this pacey satire of the TV game show lead the audience through a series of skits and games, teaching them about communication, visual language and the world of Deafness.

Some students get the opportunity to become contestants and join the actors in the hilarious goings on in this wacky TV game show.

The Sign is Right is funny, fast and loads of fun and guaranteed to entertain and enlighten.

Comments from schools about the company's other shows:-

Tahmoor Primary School.

Fantastic ! Terrific ! Great ! Super ! Mega ! Fabulous !

Tanduringle State School.

First class. Children were totally spellbound. Best we've seen.

Australian Theatre of the Deaf speaks with a powerfully energetic, crystal clear voice. Though not a word is spoken each new concept is effortlessly understood and enjoyed by all.

During its 18 year history the Company has often toured internationally and is renowned for its unique visual style incorporating facial expressions, body movement and gesture. This makes their performances accessible to all people:- hearing, Deaf and those from non English speaking backgrounds.
