

THEATRE OF THE DEAF

is offering

Deaf Drama Theatre classes!

TOD will be conducting Deaf Drama Theatre classes for Deaf adults from the age of 18 and above. The classes will be mostly taught by Mike Canfield, the Associate Director of TOD, and the actors of the company will contribute their teachings too from time to time. A variety range of different Deaf drama skills will be taught, such as visual vernacular, movement, visual communication, improvisation and so forth.

Anybody who is 18 and over and Deaf is welcome to join the classes. Prior experience in theatre is not needed. This is a good opportunity for all Deaf adults to learn and use the skills for their benefit.
