Artists making an impact

"I want to get my business out in the whole world. Put it on big billboards, in movies and shows, so people can see."

Melissa Kirkman

Melissa attends Tutti's Visual Art studio at Port Adelaide. Melissa started a micro-enterprise business, Kirkman by Melissa Kirkman, in late 2020. Melissa designs and paints images which are printed on T-shirts and other products. In 2021, Melissa's business was featured on the Sunrise TV program and she sold her products at various makers markets.

Sara Egarr

Based in the Barossa, Sara attends Film Club and has been on the Sit Down Shutup and Watch Festival (SDSW) committee since 2017. As a member of the SDSW Committee, Sara has delivered many workshops and presented at the Creative Industries conference in 2021. Sara began training to become the new Chair of SDSW in August 2021.

"I was actually very shy, quite quiet. Getting out there, going to Whyalla, doing a workshop, speaking in front of 30 people, helped me in a way."

"Film is a good way to communicate. Sometimes it's easier to communicate on film than by speaking or writing."

"It's important to learn new skills."

Joshua Ramsey

Joshua is a visual artist based at Tutti Barossa. Josh received a scholarship from Foundation Barossa to undertake formal study in visual arts. In 2021, Josh commenced a Certificate IV in Visual Arts at TAFE in Adelaide.

"The assignments help with my thinking about my work."

"Drawing and painting is a big part of my life."

"Whenever I paint and draw now I use the new techniques."

"I want to grow my business and employ more people with disability so they can have a job."

"When I finished school, there was no job for me. So... I started my business."

Grace Lam

Grace attends Music, Dance and Theatre at Tutti Brighton. Grace is an entrepreneur who designs, makes and sells handmade cards, candles, T-shirts and tote bags through her business Grace's Handmade Cards. In 2021, Grace was a Finalist in the 7NEWS Young Achiever Awards SA - Carclew Creative Achievement Award for her work as a multi-disciplinary artist.

Joshua Campton

Josh is a Larraki, Wadaman/Karajarri and Gulidjan actor, dancer, and poet who has been based at Tutti Brighton. In 2021 Josh successfully auditioned for Slingsby's Flying Squad and was awarded a two-year contract. Their work This Tree is a Story will premiere in 2022.

"You've got the job out of 150 people! I was over the moon, actually."

"I want the audience to hear my story."

"My whole career has stepped up now."

Farewell to Pat Rix

2021 marked the end of an era, with the retirement of Tutti Arts Founder and Artistic Director Pat Rix after 24 years.

Tutti Arts was initiated by Pat to develop and celebrate the work of learning disabled artists. True to this vision, Tutti Arts continues to create opportunities for disabled artists.

Many stories, reflections and heartfelt thanks were shared as Pat was farewelled by Tutti artists, staff, friends and special guests, including the then-Premier Steven Marshall, in a series of COVID-safe events through September and October.

Pat's remarkable contribution was also acknowledged with the Premier's Lifetime Achievement Award at the 2021 Ruby Awards.

"I just want to say thank you from the bottom of my heart for making Tutti happen."

Tutti Artist Joel Hartgen

"Pat is one of the most extraordinary persons I've known."

Welcome Gaelle Mellis

Award-winning disabled designer, collaborator and consultant Gaelle Mellis was appointed as Tutti's new Creative Director in July 2021. Gaelle believes in disability-led practice and that disabled people must be the producers of their own image and storytellers of their own lives.

"I am excited for the future of Tutti Arts, its extraordinary artists and the role I can play."

"I will support and encourage Tutti artists to be authentic, bold, curious and fierce."
