Some of the Tutti Arts Barossa artists

The Unbounded Collection

This exhibition, titled 'The Unbounded Collection', is a selection of artworks from the 20 artists who attend Tutti Arts' Barossa visual arts studio in Tanunda.

Unbounded means unrestrained, boundless, abundant and limitless, and this describes the Tutti Barossa artists and their art practice perfectly. The works highlight the individualism of each artist's creative process. Each artwork was produced during the COVID 19 social restrictions era, from March to July 2020, when Tutti Arts' art programs were predominantly delivered via Zoom.

Each Tutti artist adapted to being creative and social in a virtual world while still being at home. Their strength and energy has been inspiring. In keeping with this new way of life, Tutti Arts is proud to present this online exhibition and continue our vision of taking the work of our artists to the world.

This exhibition was curated by Alexandra Devitt-Lansom and is part of the 2020 SALA Festival.

Rebecca Eglinton
Title - The Maiden of Harvest

Medium: Mixed Media on Paper

Size 84.1 cm x 59.4 cm

$70.00

This is a drawing of a sculpture from a still life drawing exercise at Tutti Visual Arts Barossa. Eglinton explains; I liked the brassy / bronze tones of the clay sculpture and I was utilising the drawing techniques I have recently learnt from my BA in Visual Arts.

As I added the splash of gold in the background and as it evolved, it reminded me of golden fields of wheat. I was thinking about money and prosperity and how that comes from a successful harvest.

I was interested in her pose and the way she is looking up with confidence and integrity.

Tutti Artist
Johanna Roberts
Title - A Void of Cold Stars

Medium: Acrylic on Wood
Size 10 cm x 18 cm
$70.00

Roberts is a Ngarrindjeri woman who shares her cultural stories in her artworks.
This is Roberts telling the story of her artwork:

She walks amongst the cold void as massive frozen like stars rise and fall, in search of the warmth that she once found when she was young and walking happily through a place called Earth.

The cool tone show that she is deathly frozen as she looks for help in a dark shellless long universe where dreams would come.

41 cm x 34 cm
Available as an A3 Photograph
$120.00

she had a support worker come and visit me. Together we looked at different images and she chose an image of a woman living in India.

She though she looked like a Goddess.

She interpreted the image in her own style and created the Indian Woman.

Schrapel stated;

I liked all the different designs and patterns I created on her headpiece, I was fascinated by her hand as she has more than 11 fingers and all the different flowers surrounding her face.

The intimate details I enjoy doing and choosing the various bright colours.

Tutti Artist
Gemma Brett
Title: White Out Winter

White out the summer weather when is not the favourite time of the year the image of the world for the summer, waiting to return.
