Language of ONE

AUSTRALIAN THEATRE OF THE DEAF

Language of ONE

Via a montage of hands and voices, Language of One unravels the layered identity of a Deaf, Gay, Jewish man. Three cultural clashes which translate from the unique to the universal.

How does the blurring of community boundaries affect our identity? Experience one man's internal tug of war.

The innovative bilingual presentation (Sign Language & spoken English) is an entertaining and educational first for all audiences.
