

CONNECTING TO COUNTRY

A project of the Queens Lodge Supported Residential Service (SRS) Studio, Connecting to Country is an artistic exploration of local Indigenous flora, fauna, history and culture.

Please join Arts Access Victoria at the Whittlesea Community Festival as we launch the Connecting to Country publication and showcase an exhibition of original artworks in Nebula, AAV's fully accessible mobile art space.

Date: 15 March 2015

Time: Exhibition from 12pm–6pm, launch event from 3.20pm–3.35pm on the Youth Stage

Venue: Nebula at Whittlesea Community Festival, Whittlesea Public Gardens, Barry Road, Lalor
Melway: 8 C5, Google Maps: <http://goo.gl/hptyMd>

Cost: Free

Find out more: visit www.artsaccess.com.au or contact Aleiy Ball, Arts Development Officer, on 03 8640 6009 or email aball@artsaccess.com.au

The project is proudly supported by

Above: Nebula

Department of Human Services

CREATIVE VICTORIA

City of Whittlesea

Cover image: Untitled (Artefact) 2015, Jing He