IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NT ARTS ACCESS AWARDS 2012

The Awards are now in their fourth year, having been established in 2009 by Arts Access Darwin with support from Arts Access Central Australia, to help promote arts and disability practice in the Northern Territory.

The Awards intentionally coincide with International Day of People with Disability, the UN Theme for 2012 being “Removing barriers to create an inclusive & accessible society for all”. This year’s NT Arts Access Awards recognise excellence in inclusive practice through a Project.

The Awards intentionally coincide with International day of People with Disability, the UN Theme for 2012 being “Removing barriers to create an inclusive & accessible society for all”.

There are four awards being presented: City of Darwin Award, The Chief Minister’s Award, Disability Advocacy Services Award and the Desert Award.

The Awards will be presented by The Hon Mr Matthew Conlan MLA Minister for Arts and Museums.

Opening address will be given by Emma Bennison CEO Arts Access Australia.
