Part documentary, part fashion editorial, 'Inside Studio A' is a unique peek into the magical world of Studio A. Getting to the heart of how art and Studio A defines the artists' worlds, and in turn how they reimagine and impact the world around them.

In 2020 creative producer Amelia Bowe reached out, as a fan of Studio A, to do some volunteer work. Studio A was in need of an 'about' video with a difference and Amelia had the skills to make it happen. With that, 'Inside Studio A' was born.

Over the course of two days Amelia and her team, including Director Cybele Malinowski, sat down with five Studio A artists, Mathew Calandra, Thom Roberts, Catherine McGuiness, Jaycee Kim and Meagan Pelham and Studio A's founder Gabrielle Mordy. The team heard our artists' stories and captured them to share with the world and champion their voices and abilities.

This beautiful video is the result of the hard work and talent lent to Studio A by an exceptional pro-bono team of creatives. We are so grateful for their support and hope you enjoy watching 'Inside Studio A'.
